

Two buses have been reserved for the Jamfest competition January 18-20, 2008. The cost is $52 (fifty two dollars) per person. This cost covers the bus and hotel rooms for the bus drivers. The buses will leave Hamilton high school located on Town Line Road in Sussex, at 3 p.m. sharp. Anyone leaving their vehicle at Hamilton for the weekend should park in the lot in the front of the building on the Town Line Road side. The buses will be stopping at the Pilgrim Road & I-45 park n ride and the Ryan Road park n ride once leaving Hamilton. The buses will drop off riders at the Omni Hotel adjacent to the convention center and then proceed to the Hampton Inn. Buses will transport participants and fans to the competition throughout the day on Saturday. On Sunday, they will drive to the competition in the morning but will not be driving throughout the day as they must have a certain amount of hours off before the trip home.

Payment for the bus must be received no later than Wednesday, January 9, 2008. The amount of $52 per person should be in the form of a check or money order made payable to: Suzanne v. Selestow *please note on your check/envelope what team your daughter is on and which location you will ride from (Sussex, Pilgrim or Ryan Road). Payment should be placed in the envelope marked Jam Fest and placed in the Selestow HEAT folder. Or payment can be mailed to:

Suzanne V. Selestow
W180 N5325 Marcy Road
Menomonee Falls, WI 53051
262-252-3188 (office number that has voice mail)

Only those whose payments have been received will be allowed to ride the bus. There is still room for additional riders.

Rochelle Peddy a sparks mom, has offered to pickup sub sandwiches and snacks for the bus ride. If interested, please indicate by signing your name and choice of sandwich on the sheet located on the bulletin board.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Happy New Year & go HEAT All Stars.
